Important Information about Procedures for Opening a New Account
To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or entity who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.
Authorization
The undersigned certifies that, to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, all information contained in this loan application and in the accompanying statements and documents is true, complete, and correct. The undersigned agrees to notify Bellco immediately of any material changes in this information. It is further agreed that, whether or not the loan herein applied for is approved, the undersigned will pay or reimburse Bellco for the costs, if any, of surveys, title or mortgage examinations, appraisals, etc., performed by non-Credit Union personnel with the consent of the applicant. The undersigned authorizes Bellco to contact any financial institution and trade creditors it deems necessary without further notice, including, but not limited to, Dunn & Bradstreet reports or information from credit agencies.
