FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GREENWOD VILLAGE, Colo. (Aug. 24, 2017) – Bellco Credit Union announces the addition of CUSO Financial Services, L.P. (CFS) Executive Financial Advisor, Michael Kitch, CFP® to its existing team of CFS* Financial Advisors. Kitch brings nearly 20 years of investment-management experience to credit union members across the Denver metro area. He will play a key role in helping to further enhance and lead Bellco’s members to long-term financial success.

“We are pleased that Michael Kitch has joined our CFS* investment team,” said Doug Ferraro, president and CEO of Bellco Credit Union. “His values and business strategies are in line with our membership, and he will continue to build on our focus to provide the best services for each individual, creating financial plans that help meet their unique goals.”

Kitch will focus on providing sound financial advice to Bellco members, determining key financial objectives based on each client’s needs, recommending strategies that members can use to achieve their desired financial objectives, as well as researching the marketplace and providing clients with current information on new and existing products and services to benefit their portfolios.

Kitch is a graduate of Colorado State University and holds the following licenses: Series 7, 52, 9, 10, 63, 65/66 and Colorado life and health insurance. He resides in Littleton, Colorado with his wife and two children. He enjoys fishing, camping, and working with his kids’ sports activities.
