BELLCO TO OPEN NEW BRANCH IN CASTLE ROCK

Bellco announces its newest branch location and first in Castle Rock

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, Colo. (Dec. 11, 2015) – Bellco is moving into Castle Rock as it begins building out its newest branch at 4989 Factory Shops Blvd. #210, at the corner of Founder's Parkway. The Castle Rock branch will mark Bellco's 22nd location, with 21 in the Denver Metro area and one in Grand Junction.

The new 2,200-square-foot branch, set to open in the spring of 2016, will offer the full suite of traditional Bellco services including free checking, savings, home mortgages, and auto loans. Its full-service lobby will be open Monday – Friday, 9 a.m. – 6 p.m., and on Saturday from 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. In addition to the full-service options, this branch will also feature two Express Teller Machines, making it convenient for members to conduct self-service banking transactions.

“At Bellco, we place a high priority on convenience and meeting our customers where they need us,” said John Rivera, Bellco's senior vice president and chief retail officer. “With this new Castle Rock branch, we are able to provide greater access to our many customers who live and/or work in this expanding Castle Rock area.”
