BELLCO BREAKS GROUND ON NEW BRANCH IN THORNTON

New location marks Bellco's 20th branch, will offer full suite of Bellco services

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, Colo. (June 3, 2013) – Bellco broke ground on what will become its 20th branch location with a special ceremony on Friday. The branch will be located at 12820 Holly Street (near the intersection of Holly and E. 128th Avenue) in Thornton, Colo.

The new branch will feature two drive-up ATMs, three drive-up teller lanes and a full-service lobby with Saturday hours. It is slated to open its doors for business in late fall 2013.

“We are thrilled to be opening our 20th branch in Colorado – and our first branch in Thornton,” said John Rivera, Bellco vice president of branch sales and service. “With every branch that we open, we are able to provide greater convenience and ease of access to our customers. In particular with this branch, we look forward to being better able to serve the residents and businesses of the thriving Thornton community.”

The new location will boast 3,607 square feet. As with Bellco's other branch locations, the Thornton branch will offer the full suite of Bellco's services, including free checking, business accounts, home mortgages and auto loans, to name a few.

Eric White, Bellco Administrative Services Manager; Deirdra O’Gorman, Bellco VP/CRM; Sandra Sagehorn-Elliott, Bellco SVP/COO; John Rivera, Bellco VP/Branch Sales & Service; Joshua Zygielbaum, Bellco North Region District Manager; Doug Kearbey, Bellco Director of Administrative Services; Gary Rhodes, Associate/SEM Architects.

About Bellco
