BELLCO EXPANDING REACH IN COLORADO; NEWEST BRANCH TO OPEN IN LONGMONT

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, Colo. (May 9, 2017) – Bellco is moving into Longmont, having recently started construction on a new branch at 1250 S. Hover St., #200. Conveniently located at the Village at the Peaks outdoor shopping area, the Longmont branch will mark Bellco’s 24th location, with 23 in the Denver metro area and one in Grand Junction. It’s also Bellco’s second branch in Boulder County, along with its Louisville location, which opened in 2016.

The new 2,400-square-foot branch, set to open this summer, will offer the full suite of traditional Bellco services including free checking, savings, home mortgages and auto loans. Its full-service lobby will be open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. In addition to the full-service options, this branch will also feature one Express Teller Machine and 24-hour ATM access, making it convenient for members to conduct self-service banking transactions.

“This is an important location for Bellco as we’re committed to expanding to areas where we have a growing member base,” said John Rivera, Bellco’s senior vice president and chief retail officer. “With this new Longmont branch, we’re able to provide greater access and convenience to our members who live and work in this area.”
